FIFTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

With the battle of Armageddon now being fought on the fields of France, the coming of the Fifth War Loan Drive at this time should bring forth an unparalleled outpouring of the nation's dollars in support of our fighting men.

The $16 billion that will—and must—be raised in this drive, from June 12 to July 8, will keep the vital supplies of war marching to the battle zones so that our armies may continue their march against the foe.

Your dollars—the ones you didn't spend on entertainment, new clothes, or some other item—will enable you to fight side by side with the men who carry the guns. Every time you buy a Bond you will be taking your place in the foxhole along side some American son, or brother, or father. You will be helping him to carry on the fight—your fight—which he is risking his life to win. But with you there giving him more and better tools for the job, he can do it better, quicker and with greater safety.

All over America a vast army of volunteers have "joined up" to sell War Bonds in this campaign, augmenting the regular War Bond sales agencies such as banks which have handled the bulk of War Bond sales at their own expense since the days before Pearl Harbor.

Of the $16 billion, $6 billion is the share assigned to individual Bond purchasers. This means that each wage and salary earner should invest an extra $100 in War Bonds as his share. And he should plan to keep those Bonds until maturity. "It will be no help to the war effort," declared Mr. L. M. Giannini, president of Bank of America, "if you buy Bonds today and sell them next week, next month or next year. You should not only buy Bonds to the maximum of your capacity," he continued, "but you should keep the Bonds until maturity."

This war is being fought "for keeps." We must back our heroes with every dollar at our command. They will not fail us. We must not fail them.

FLAG DAY

With the Stars and Stripes flying proudly over the heads of our fighting men in every section of the globe, Flag Day this year has a deeper meaning to us all.

Since a year ago at this time "Old Glory" has been raised over many a Pacific island in the march back toward the Philippines and the eventual liberation of the peoples of the Far East. It is with our troops in the European area for the greatest invasion of all history.

Back in the days of the Revolutionary war when the 13 stars and 13 stripes first appeared as the banner of the Colonies fighting for freedom, Tom Paine uttered the historic words which are just as applicable to the present struggle as they were when we first took up arms aganist tyranny. "It is the object only of war that makes it honorable. And if there was ever a just war since the world began, it is this in which America is now engaged . . . We fight not to enslave, but to set a country free, and to make room upon the earth for honest men to live in."

Under this banner we shall go forward as a united people, refusing to be divided by the attempts of our enemies to divide us into religious, racial or economic groups. We shall continue to prove that America is "one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

RETURNING REFUGEES

Nobody knows how many people have been torn from their homes in this war and are now living in other areas or other countries. One of the most conservative estimates places the figure at 90 million—30 million in Europe and 60 million in Asia.

Returning these millions to their homes, or what is left of their homes, after the war will be a stupendous task and may take years to complete. The situation will be similar to that which would exist if two out of every three people in the United States were hundreds or thousands of miles from home and wanted to get there at once.

Even that does not tell the story since transportation facilities in America are extensive and have not been touched by bombs. In Europe and Asia the means of transportation either were inadequate to begin with or have been badly smashed by repeated aerial blows.

All this is just another reminder that while the problems of war are hard, the problems which come after the war may be harder.

YOU ARE YOUR OWN SANTA CLAUS

According to Business Week, revenues from income and excess-profits taxes will decrease. Profits of large industrial corporations after taxes, as compiled by the Federal Reserve, hit top in 1941. The over-all return for 1943, on much greater volume, was close to 20 per cent below 1941. There will be no more "rich to soak," so more of the money to cover all waste, extravagance, and incursions of government into the field of business will come out of the small taxpayer. Uncle Sam isn't Santa Claus. He is just the tax bill collector from 135,000,000 little Santa Clauses.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

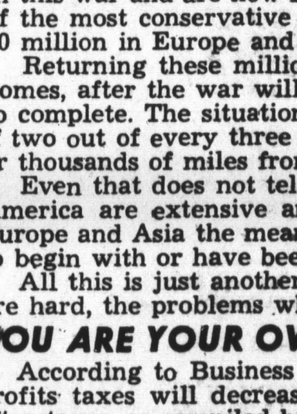
Vicki Baum has followed her immensely popular "Grand Hotel" with another novel about a German hostelry—"Hotel Berlin '43." Hotel Berlin, like its predecessor, has a varied assortment of fascinating guests, but things have changed radically under a war-torn Nazi regime.



VICKI BAUM

The windowpanes are still shattered from the last air raid. The heavy brocade curtains have tears in them, and the stuffing is coming out of the deep luxurious chairs. But the hotel is still the best there is, and to it come people of high position, Rumanian officers, Nazi officials, famous actresses. To it also comes Martin Richter, underground leader, and there he is hidden in the deep wine cellars by two sympathetic French waiters.

On the walls of houses, on the cars of the crowded underground trains, there often appears a scrawl, "You can kill Richter—but you can't kill his spirit." Service crews go around and wipe it off; guards are posted to watch the exposed spots. But the next morning, there is the handwriting again.

The influence which Martin Richter, who is a symbol of courage and freedom to the oppressed, has upon the residents of the hotel, is the main thread of Miss Baum's novel.

President Of Mills To Be Jaysee Speaker

"Frontiers" will be the subject of the address delivered by Dr. Lynn Townsend White jr., president of Mills college, at the twenty-second San Mateo junior college commencement exercises, this Friday morning, in the Woodland open-air theatre in Hillsborough. The public is invited to the exercises, which start at 10:30, and at which 38 graduates will be presented diplomas by President Charles Morris. The graduates come from the entire county.

The program also includes the awarding of scholarships and service awards, music by the college a cappella choir, and the presenting of the class gift. Reverend John R. Wilkins, Burlingame Methodist church, will give the invocation.

While the graduation officially closes the spring term at the college, the college students and their friends will hold the soph formal dance, Saturday evening, in the St. Francis hotel with Marilyn Merle and her all-girl orchestra playing for the dancing.

During the summer months, the college will feature a strong summer school program for the adults, and will also operate a complete cannery on the campus to help the county residents to can their vegetables and fruits. The work is state-inspected, just as in any other cannery, while the only charge is the cost of each can used. Complete information regarding the cannery can be obtained at the college. The plant has already been opened to public inspection.

"Passage To Marseilles" Showing At D. C. Theatre

The valiant contribution of those Frenchmen who fight—not bow to—fascism and the story of a small group of men who risked their lives to join that fight is the exciting background for the new Warner Brothers film, "Passage to Marseilles," which comes to the Daly City theatre tonight.

Starring Humphrey Bogart as Matrac, an anti-Nazi who has been banished to Devil's island on trumped-up charges, the picture tells of his daring escape from the Island with four other convicts and the peril they encounter in their attempt to get back to France.

When they are picked up, more dead than alive, in mid-ocean by a small freighter bound for Marseilles they utter silent thanks that their trials have ended—but in fact they have just begun. Halfway to Marseilles word comes that France has capitulated. This provokes a crisis on board parallel to the bigger one in Paris when issues were raised between collaborationists and anti-Nazis. Bogart and his four fellow-convicts settle the issue at last by taking over and piloting the ship straight into an English port—but not before Marius (Peter Lorre), one of the convicts, has died a hero's death.

A big supporting cast includes Claude Rains, Sydney Greenstreet, Helmut Dantine, remembered for their unforgettable portrayals in "Casablanca," and Michele Morgan, Philip Dorn and George Tobias.

Homemakers' GUIDE

How To Dress Up Salad Dressings

A GOOD ready-to-use salad dressing is, in itself, guaranteed to add zest to a meal. But there are scores of simple little ways to make them even more zestful. For instance:

FOR RICH COLOR, combine shredded raw beet and the juice of ½ lemon with 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise—adds interest to any raw or cooked vegetable salad.

* * *

FOR HOT VEGETABLES, try this home-made hollandaise: mix 1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise, 2 tsps. prepared mustard, 1 tbsp. lemon juice, and a dash of salt—piquant on cauliflower, for example.

* * *

FOR MEAT OR FISH, combine 2 tbsps. finely chopped chives (green tops of onions will do), with 1 cup salad dressing—toothsome on vegetable salads, too.

* * *

FOR DESSERTS, mix 1 cup salad dressing with ⅔ cup fruit juice (any kind), and use generously as a topping for fruits—may be sweetened by adding a bit of honey.

SALAD OF THE WEEK

Use RAISINS in this Simple Salad

Delightful—and satisfying—on a warm day! Marinate raisins, grated raw carrots, shredded cabbage, and chopped celery. Serve in lettuce cups.
